

program

day 1 Saturday May 18

8:30am	Registration and coffee	Lifts open 8:00–9:30
9:00am	Welcome and Housekeeping
9:10am	Understanding the big picture of pelvic pain Dr Susan Evans
9:50am	Managing bowel pain in primary care Professor Chris Rayner	Lifts open
10:30am	Morning Tea	10:00–11.45
11:00am	Diagnosing and managing men's pelvic pain Dr Tim Smith
11:40am	Recognising pain from muscles, joints and nerves Dr Dan Bates	Lifts open
12:20pm	Lunch	12:15–1:30
1:15pm	The brain on opioids – impact of centralised pain on acute and chronic care Dr Irina Hollington
1:45pm	The language of pelvic pain Professor Roly Sussex
2:25pm	The colour of blood – measuring pain intensity through colour Professor Mark Hutchinson	Lifts open
3:05pm	Afternoon Tea	2:45–3:30
3:30pm	Motivational Interviewing – helping your patients start change Miss Tiffany Brooks
4:00pm	PPEP Talk, the PPFA developed Schools' program Ms Libby Parker	Lifts open
4:40pm	Close	4:30–5:00

day 2 Sunday May 19

9:00am	Welcome	Lifts open 8:30–9:30
9:05am	Burnout: How to stop their pain becoming your pain Dr Susan Evans
9:45am	Putting pain science into practice – not just a topic for physiotherapists Dr Patricia Neumann	Lifts open
10:25am	Morning Tea	10:15–11:10
10:55am	Your brand; your practice Ms Kirsty Mead
11:35am	Understanding laparoscopy for endometriosis: when, who and why? Dr Paul Knight	Lifts open
12:15pm	Close and thank you.	12:00–12:45

fertilitySA

metropain
group
Live better